CAPE ANN MUSEUM

<http://www.capeannmuseum.org>

27 Pleasant Street,

Gloucester, MA 01930

<http://www.capeannmuseum.org/collections/fitz-henry-lane/>

- We will meet at 10:45 AM to assemble our group in the lobby of the Cape Ann Museum, to pay your admission fee, and tour the Museum's collections which cover early American portraits to contemporary art, fisheries and maritime gallery, granite gallery, and more. Please arrive on time.

- The museum houses the largest collection of works by luminist maritime painter, Fitz Henry Lane (1804-1865). Fitz Henry Lane was America's preeminent marine artist of the mid-19th century. Working in pencil or oil, Lane could render a ship at sea with a precision that satisfied the most discerning vessel owner, and the beauty of Cape Ann's rocky shore with a skill that evoked the spirituality of Emerson and Thoreau.

- DIRECTIONS AND PARKING: The Museum is located in the heart of downtown Gloucester. Metered parking is available in the public lot across from the Museum.

- Around 1:00 pm we will gather again in the museum lobby to re-assemble the group then head over to the waterfront, to The Seaport Grill restaurant

(<https://seaportgrillgloucester.com> for lunch at 1:30 PM, about a 2-minute drive or an 11-minute walk (0.2 miles) away from the museum. Seaport Grille at Cruiseport Gloucester is located directly on the harbor with two decks for classic waterview dining. The menu offers a wide range of delectable cuisines made with the freshest ingredients including surf & turf options, classic American plates, Italian-inspired dishes, world-famous desserts and more.

6 Rowe Square

Gloucester, MA 01930

- Admission to the museum is $25 per person; $20 for seniors over 65. Cost for lunch is additional and you will pay individually on your own. While we always encourage you to drive your MG's, October is likely too cold, and we welcome you to drive your

"regular" cars so that you can join us for this visit to an outstanding local museum and a delicious waterfront dining experience.

- PLEASE RSVP by October 31st to Charles so he can give a head count to the restaurant: dyer-charles@comcast.net
